

Kenneth Peach Bio

Ken Peach is executive director of the Health Council of East Central Florida, the health planning organization for Brevard, Osceola, Orange, and Seminole counties. He serves on numerous local health planning boards.

Ken's career has included hospital, hospital association, physician office, and nursing home management. Additionally, he has owned and operated commercial radio stations and a health insurance agency.

Ken has his undergraduate degree in Communication from Seton Hall University, and an MBA with a concentration in Health Administration from the Florida Institute of Technology.

Ken and his wife Anne have resided in the Orlando area since 1983.