Dear Local Law Enforcement Partners,

Please be advised that this business performs a critical role in providing health care delivery services and is authorized to travel outside of established curfews during Potential Tropical Cyclone Nine in order to deliver critical medical supplies, pharmaceuticals, and/or health care delivery services to medical facilities.

In addition, staff of the Agency for Health Care Administration are authorized to travel throughout the state outside of established curfews, including crossing county lines as necessary, to complete health and safety inspections of health care facilities, as well as other necessary functions, in areas impacted by Potential Tropical Cyclone Nine.

Thank you for your commitment to assisting with disaster relief.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Ladapo, MD, PhD
State Surgeon General
