

Disaster Behavioral Health Strike Teams: CFDMC partners with the Florida Crisis Response Team to provide individual and group crisis counseling for victims and responders. CFDMC has also behavioral health liaisons who can work with ESF8 in identifying and addressing the behavioral health needs of an event.

Title: Region 5 Behavioral Health Response
a.	Task and Purpose: A response team that can, at the request of a local jurisdiction, quickly mitigate the adverse effects of disaster-related trauma by promoting and restoring psychological well-being and daily life functioning of affected individuals and communities.	b.	Mission: A proportional behavioral health response, addressing the unique behavioral health needs of children, implemented according to the impact of emergencies on the community
c.	ESFs: ESF8 ESF16	d.	Limitations: Personnel have been identified to lead but additional assets may be needed. For example, Florida Crisis Response Team members to provide individual and group crisis counseling.
e.	Personnel/Positions: The CFDMC will, at a minimum maintain at least three disaster behavioral health subject matter experts to provide guidance and support for behavioral health response during an event.	f.	Equipment: None needed.
g.	Required Support: Coalition supported project (multi-year)	h.	Works With: Region 5 Emergency Managers Region 5 Incident Management Team Florida Crisis Response Team Local, state and national law enforcement
i.	N-Hour Sequence: 6-8 hours	j.	Special Instructions: None

Disaster Behavioral Health Strike Teams: CFDMC partners with the Florida Crisis Response Team to provide individual and group crisis counseling for victims and responders. CFDMC has also behavioral health liaisons who can work with ESF8 in identifying and addressing the behavioral health needs of an event.

k.	Cost Per Day: Personnel: None - Volunteers Equipment: none Total: Travel and lodging are the only anticipated costs and will depend upon the mission.		